ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

A.

This is a contract case. Plaintiff is a tier one automotive supplier. Defendants are tier two automotive suppliers that supply vinyl material to plaintiff. The parties dispute the price that plaintiff is required to pay for defendants' product. Plaintiff seeks a temporary restraining order requiring defendants to continue supplying product. For the reasons stated on the record on April 1, 2010, plaintiff's motion will be granted.

B.

Defendants shall supply product to the plaintiffs according to the terms of the supply agreement between them. Plaintiff shall pay the difference between the price it says is called for by the supply agreement between the parties and the current price demanded by defendants into an escrow account designated by the parties until further order of the Court. This order expires on April 8, 2010 unless extended by the Court.

SO ORDERED.
